Benham's Grove to host 25th annual tree lighting

Ring in the holidays at the 25th annual tree lighting ceremony Sunday, Nov. 19, 2017 at Benham's Grove, 166 North Main Street. Festivities begin at 5:30 p.m. with a performance by the Centerville Community Band. Other performances include holiday songs by the Cline Elementary Cougar Chorus, dance selections from "Nutcracker" by the Miami Valley Dance Company, and a special appearance by Santa Claus. Centerville Mayor Brooks Compton will light the tree following Santa's arrival. The event is free and open to the public.

The tree lighting ceremony follows the Hometown Holiday Walk held 1 – 5 p.m. in downtown Centerville. Shop, eat, visit with Santa and enjoy entertainment.
