Centerville Art Gallery Features Art at the Trace Featured Artist Kathy Gross in January

The Centerville Arts Commission is pleased to host an exhibit by Kathy Gross in the Art Gallery at the Centerville Police Department for January 2018. The Police Headquarters are located at 155 W. Spring Valley Road in Centerville. The exhibit may be viewed anytime, day or night.

Kathy Gross is also the featured artist for 2018's Art at the Trace to be held Saturday, February 24, 2018 at The Golf Club at Yankee Trace, 10000 Yankee Street and is sponsored by the Centerville Arts Commission. Tickets for the event are $15.00 in advance and $20.00 at the door.

Kathy Gross is a local pen and ink artist who has been drawing since she was a small child. Born and raised in England, she lived for many years in Dayton. She specializes in finely-detailed pen and drawings of private homes, but also draws businesses, colleges, and historic landmarks.

During the past 20 years, she has completed over 1600 commissions, and has issued over 35 limited-edition prints of local colleges and places of interest -- which include Wright properties, Wright Flyer planes, and architectural gems such as the Dayton Skyline, the Art Institute, the Victoria Theater, and Benham's Grove.

Examples of her work can be found on her website (kgrossink.com) or Facebook business page (Kathy Gross Pen & Ink Originals) – or in the lobby of the Homewood Suites by the Dayton Mall, where large examples of her drawings of local landmarks have been commissioned over a number of years. Hawthorn Hill, Patterson Homestead, and Dunbar House are represented there.

The Centerville Arts Commission was created by Centerville City Council to involve the citizens of the Centerville area in the visual and performing arts.
